

Today in the Quad-Cities Woman, 100, is honored

Friends and relatives visited throughout the day and evening at the home of Mrs. Ida Grove, 2424 Lincoln Ave., Friday in honor of her 100th birthday.

Mrs. Grove was born in Nameoki on April 25th, 1875 and has been a lifelong resident of the Granite City area with the exception of four years, at which time she resided in Arkansas and Oklahoma.

She has resided at her present address for the last 61 years.

She had five children, James L. Jennings, deceased, James W. Grove, Mrs. William Gregory and Theo. E. Grove (also deceased), all of Granite City and Mrs. Wesley Edwards of Venice.

Mrs. Grove had one sister, Mrs. Augusta Rinkel, Edwardsville, now deceased, and one brother, William Weidig, Wood River, also deceased.

Weather outlook for this region

Single parent group here is busy, growing

TGIF! Yes, there will be a Thank Goodness It's Friday party May 9.

But Parents Without Partners is seriously trying to overcome a "party goes" image because there are many other dimensions to the active, growing organization.

Parents Without Partners, Inc. (PWP) is an international non-profit, non-sectarian educational organization, devoted to the welfare and interest of single parents and their families.

"Many and acute are the particular problems of bringing up children alone, or in handling the visitation rights and emotional conflicts arising out of widowhood or separation or divorce," a Granite City spokesman has commented to the Press-Record.

"PWP is the only national or international organization that exists to study these problems and to provide a meeting place. Through meetings, the challenges can be discussed and programs for their solution can be developed.

"As conscientious single parents, our primary purpose is to endeavor to bring our children to a healthy maturity.

"We want the children to have the full sense of being loved and accepted as individuals—with the same prospects for normal adulthood as children who mature with their two parents."

Granite City Chapter 470 is one of the many PWP units that conduct both adult activities and parent-child events. The busy schedule varies from trips to museums or television shows to an assortment of workshops and seminars.

All chapters in this Illinois-Missouri region were represented at an area PWP dance held this month at the local Knights of Columbus hall.

It is considered a major event, and the April 1975 dance was the first to be hosted by Chapter 470.

Nearly 200 people representing 15 chapters of Parents Without Partners attended the area chapter dance. Terry Dutko's orchestra provided the music.

A welcoming talk was given by President Dina Fox. Fred Halderman, Art Hagler and Walter Berfield acted as masters-of-ceremony, presenting prizes that had been provided by local merchants. Visiting dignitaries were Gene Warhaver, president, and Odell Virgin, vice president of

Await furnace reline

(The Mill)

The slowdown of steel orders has led to a decision to take Granite City Steel's "B" Blast Furnace down for a reline, rather than letting it operate at less than peak efficiency.

The decision was reached this month, and work is scheduled to start this summer.

Plans call for a 90-day shutdown for the relining project.

As a comparison, "A" furnace was relined on a 60-day schedule. Vice-president and General Manager Robert McBride pointed out, however, that GCS has the option of speeding up the reline to return the furnace to operation before 90 days if market conditions permit.

The obvious effect of the relining project will be reduced operations in the Blast Furnace area and the Steelworks, especially at the BOF shop (basic oxygen furnace) where iron made in the blast furnaces is turned into steel.

Before the shutdown, a large inventory of slabs will be built up so that rolling and finishing operations can be increased rapidly if orders pick up.

"We expect our slab inventory to be sufficient," said McBride, "to take care of prompt filling of customer orders."

The order situation is still a questionmark.

In a letter to employees this month, President H. M. "Pete" Love blamed the slowdown on a large steel inventory buildup by customers during last fall's coal strike, along with slow business for steel users who make autos, home appliances and machinery plus low levels of home building and other construction activity.

Although Love could not predict when things would get

WELCOMING GUESTS. Mrs. Dina Fox, left, president of the Granite City Chapter 470, Parents Without Partners, is pictured as the chapter hosted the Gateway Arch Regional dance this month at the Knights of Columbus hall; 200 members from Illinois and Missouri attended. Others shown, left to right, are Lonnie Crook and Mrs. Jo Chinn, both of Chapter 470, Mrs. Shirley Richardson of St. Charles Chapter 425 and Arthur Hagler, the local chapter's hospitality chairman.

EVERYONE LOVES A POLKA. About 200 attended a quarterly area dance, hosted by local Parents Without Partners. Many activities also are held for attendance by children as well as their parents.

Auto use inquiry

State Representative Everett Steele's resolution calling for an investigation into use of state-owned vehicles, excluding law enforcement vehicles, has been approved by the Illinois House of Representatives.

The resolution, which had broad bipartisan support, directs the Legislative Audit Commission to undertake the investigation with all practical speed and report its findings.

The investigation is to be particularly directed to those vehicles used during non-working hours, including weekends and holidays, and which are not essential to or directly used in providing a service to the public.

"The investigation would cover vehicles operated by state departments out of Springfield, as well as cars operated by the departments around the state and university-owned and operated vehicles," Steele said. "Savings of several millions of dollars per year could result from this investigation," he estimated.

In other legislative action related to state-owned vehicles and fuel economy, Rep. Steele (R-Glen Carbon) and Rep. Clarence Neff (R-Stoughton) have joined as chief sponsors of a bill requiring that passenger cars purchased by the state have a mileage rating of 16 miles per gallon or better.

"The average citizen is being requested or forced through necessity to economize in usage of cars," the sponsors said. "It is entirely proper that the state do likewise during these times of fuel and budget difficulties."

Boy falls 10 feet from tree

David Rose, 14, of 2123 Bryan Ave., was injured when he fell about 10 feet from a tree in front of his home at 4:30 p.m. Friday.

He was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was admitted with a concussion over his right eyebrow.

Police are investigating the fall.

Uncertainty on Olin proposal

Planning for construction of an Olin Corp. bulk loading facility for fertilizer remains "in a limbo stage," a spokesman for Olin in Little Rock, Ark., told the Press-Record Friday.

He said there has been considerable planning for a facility in this area, but added, "We are using another company to do our loading and that facility is satisfactory at this time."

He explained, "In our long-range planning, we may build a facility in Granite City, but the emphasis should be on the word 'may.'"

It was announced Friday, apparently in error, by the American Waterways Operators that Olin "plans to build a $1.1 million facility to produce agricultural chemicals in Granite City."

Citizens to study transit

The formation of a citizen group to assist in developing a mass transit program for the St. Louis region was announced Friday by Lawrence K. Roos, chairman of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council.

It includes Carl E. Mathias of Granite City, Illinois Power Co. service area manager.

The group will be known as the Transit Action Committee (TAC). Its members will work with the East-West Council's staff and consultants during the transit plan development process and will present suggestions and opinions to the Council's board of directors.

The persons asked to serve on TAC were selected because they represent various points of view and have demonstrated a genuine concern for the improvement of the region, Roos said. They were selected as individuals and not as representatives of any groups or organizations.

Roos, a former vice president of White-Weld and Company, Inc., has been named chairman of the TAC.

He is a past president and chairman of the Greater St. Louis Council for Arts and Education, a former vice president and member of the board of directors of the Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce of Greater St. Louis, a former director of the St. Louis Zoo Association and the Better Business Bureau of St. Louis.

Vice-chairman of TAC will be James Nations, a councilman in Fairview Heights and chairman of the Transportation Task Force of the Regional Forum of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council.

In announcing its formation, Roos said the group will be a key element in the Council's efforts to involve the entire community in development of the transit plan.

In addition, in order to provide broad public input into the transit planning process, meetings will be held with special interest groups, public hearings will be conducted throughout the area, and an extensive public information program will be conducted.

"Everyone involved in East-West Gateway's transit planning project is determined to make sure that all interested citizens will have an opportunity to contribute to the development of a transit system (Continued on Page 3)

Unusual 'stamp'

The Granite City Police Department received an unusual stamp on a letter Friday morning — two nickels taped to the upper right corner of the envelope.

The nickels were held in place with a piece of white tape and the post office had placed a cancellation mark across the tape. There was no actual stamp.

Herbert Backs, Granite City postmaster, said the letter cleared the post office as "A slip," and emphasized that all letters must contain a stamp and not coins.

Crackdown on delay at crossings

Granite City police Friday morning signed a complaint against the Norfolk & Western Railroad, alleging that N&W engine 8508 blocked the West Pontoon Road crossing for more than 45 minutes, starting at 7:30 a.m. Friday.

An officer said he noticed the crossing gates were down and a train was stopped about 10 feet from the intersection, blocking motorists' vision of the other trucks.

Traffic, including two school buses full of children, was lined up from the tracks east across Nameoki Road.

The policeman asked the train crew to back the train and allow the gates to rise. He related that he waited about 15 minutes before the train moved, but the gates remained down.

The officer said he directed traffic across the crossing for a long time, during which three trains passed, including a northbound high-speed Amtrak passenger train.

A complaint alleging obstruction of a highway was signed by the officer.

Granite City police filed the second complaint within 24 hours against the Norfolk & Western Railroad at 9:15 a.m. Saturday, again alleging obstruction of a highway.

Officers said a stopped train blocked the 19th, 20th, 22nd and 25th Street crossings between Granite City and West Granite City from 9:15 a.m. Saturday to 9:57 a.m. The engine number was 1596, according to police. The train then moved to the West Pontoon Road crossing and stayed blocked for 15 minutes while changing train crews, it was alleged.

2 police, man hurt

Two Granite City policemen and another man were injured during a disturbance at 6:05 p.m. Sunday at the Wayside Tavern, 22nd Street and Washington Ave.

Petrolman David Rosenberg, 25, remained in St. Elizabeth Hospital overnight with contusions and a hematoma to his left hand and contusions to the back of his head. X-rays were taken of his skull, spine, chest and left hand.

Sgt. Richard Woods, 37, also was injured and suffered a facial abrasion under his left forearm.

A patron in the tavern, Fritz Fochschiatt, 46, of 2815 E. 28th St., also was injured and was in Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis, today. He suffered two large cuts and contusions to his scalp.

Police were called to quell a disturbance and alleged a man assaulted them, ripping both their shirts and throwing Rosenberg from the tavern. A spokesman for the police department said an arrest is anticipated this week.

Charge 4 in railroad theft

Four Venice youths have been charged with theft in connection with the theft of 13 tires and wheels from new cars on the Terminal Railroad Association, train near the north edge of Venice, by the city dog pound, shortly after midnight Saturday.

Charged with felony counts of theft are Kevin C. Garrett, 17, of 1016 Douglas St., Floyd "Fast Black" Smith, 17, of 1127 Blissett St., Stanley A. Byrd, 17, of 545 Mercedes Ave., and Rodney Allen Jenkins, 18, of 52 Lee Wright Homes.

Madison police responded to a report of suspicious persons in Grezner Homes and alleged following a car with no lights at 1:35 a.m. Saturday from the homes to the end of Race Street near the railroad tracks.

They alleged finding four tires and rims inside the car and arrested Smith and Garrett. A 19-year-old Lee Wright Homes tenant driving the car was released without charge pending investigation.

Railroad detectives alleged seeing another car leaving the railroad yards and the car was stopped nearby. Officers alleged Byrd and Jenkins were arrested in that car and other tires were found. More tires later were found in weeds, police said.

Detectives also alleged finding a button on a railroad car which was similar to the buttons on Garrett's coat.

Officers said all of the missing tires and rims were recovered. The new car windows were broken to obtain keys which were used to open the trunks, police reported.

Music and art Sunday at South

Music and art will be featured this year at the annual Acre of Art show scheduled for Sunday from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m. in the gym at Granite City High School South.

This year, if weather permits, in addition to the art projects by students in kindergarten through the 12th grade, the GCHS North band under the direction of Robert D. Todoroff and the South vocal music department directed by Mrs. Mary Bright will entertain outdoors in front of the gymnasium.

In case of rain, the music group will present the programs inside the gym on the balcony overlooking the art show.

"A gala, carnival atmosphere is being planned for an entertaining afternoon by the arts departments of the Granite City schools," Eugene L. Alassi, district consultant on art education, reports.

Moses Spearman, 38, dies

Moses Lee Andrew Spearman, 38, of 64 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, was found without signs of life in his home Friday morning by his mother, Mrs. Roxie Spearman of the same address.

He was pronounced dead at the scene at 10:10 a.m. Friday by Madison County Deputy Coroner Edward Werner. It was believed Mr. Spearman had been dead about 10 hours when found. An inquiry will be conducted to determine the cause of death.

Other survivors were three sons, Kenneth Boyd Springfield, Ill., and John and Maurice Hughes, both of Madison; two brothers, Johnny Hardy of Muskegon, Mich., and Mack Spearman of East St. Louis; and three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Burke, Mrs. Delores Mays and Mrs. Velma Bradley, all of Madison.

Funeral services will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at Mount Nebo Baptist Church, Madison.

Car overturns

Two men were injured when the auto of Eddie Sullivan, 31, of 4058 Kathy Drive, Pontoon Beach, went out of control on State Aid Route 38 one mile west of Route 157 at 7:50 p.m. Thursday.

The auto went out of control, struck a culvert and overturned, Illinois State Police reported.

Sullivan and a passenger in his car, Ray Heath, 25, of 3011 Wilson Park Lane, were brought by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where both were admitted.

Sullivan suffered multiple cuts to his face and abrasions to his left leg and knee. Heath suffered a cut to his back and abrasions to his right side.

Fights at Ricco's Lounge

Two men were arrested following disturbances at Ricco's II Lounge in the former Biederman's building on Namecki Road at 12:05 a.m. today.

Officers said a large and hostile crowd was gathered outside, causing police to order the establishment closed for the night.

Fred Beyrau, 22, of 2512 Robert S. who also listed an address at 3131 Jill Ave., was charged with three counts of battery, and also charges of theft, criminal damage to property and disorderly conduct.

Police alleged that he had to be used to subdue Beyrau and he was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for a cut to the back of his head requiring sutures. He said he was struck with a flashlight. He was returned to police custody after treatment.

Employees said the disturbance started after Joanna Kazanas, St. Louis, alleged her purse had been taken from her table. Employees said they found a man in the washroom attempting to dispose of her credit cards and other items in a toilet.

Three employees reported they attempted to remove the man from the lounge, but he broke loose, grabbed a chair and started swinging it at them. The three men said they were struck by the chair and were injured.

Employees hurt were: Ralph Serini, 2530 Parkside St., struck

Indicted on two charges

A Madison County grand jury Thursday afternoon indicted James H. Crawford Jr., Brooklyn, on charges of felony and simple battery.

He allegedly stole a blank money order from Associated Grocer, Inc., St. Louis, March 1974 and attempted to cash it at $185 the same day at First National Bank in Madison.

Crawford was released on recognizance bonds totaling $3,500.

Mrs. Heyer dies in South

Mrs. Jean Heyer, widow of Otto J. Heyer, passed away Saturday at the Chattanooga Memorial Hospital in Chattanooga, Tenn.

She was native of Nashville, Tenn., and lived in Granite City from 1921 until 1938.

Private graveside services were held today at the Chattanooga Memorial Cemetery.

Survivors include one daughter, Margaret Heyer of Chattanooga; two sons, Thomas J. Heyer of Walnut Creek, Calif., and James W. Heyer of Huntsville, Ala.; one sister, Mrs. Rurt Champion of Florissant, Mo.; and one brother, Elmer Henley of Greenville, S.C.

Mrs. Sarkanj dies at 77

Mrs. Josipa Podgoriski Sarkanj, 77, of 820 Madison Ave., Madison, died at home at 2 a.m. Sunday. She had been ill for months.

Born in Yugoslavia, Mrs. Sarkanj had resided in Madison for two and a half years. She was a member of the Roman Catholic faith.

Her husband, Joseph Sarkanj, died in 1968.

Survivors include a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stanko (Milka) Yovanovic, owners and operators of Marko's Fish House in Madison; a brother, Franjo Podgoriski; two sisters, Mrs. Marica Golenic and Mrs. Toma Rudza Loncarevic.

Items valued at a total of over $3,000 were taken from a barge anchored in the middle of the Mississippi River, two miles north of Moonshine Island, between Sunday, April 20, and Friday, April 25. Genie Garris, an employee of Lahr Construction Co., Columbia, Ill., owners of the barge, said items taken were a one-inch pump and motor, a 14-foot John boat, 10 life-jackets, six master locks and keys, 500 feet of 3/4-inch manila rope, two chain saws and many tools.

W. Va. police to aid GC boy

Granite City Patrolman Albert Young received word at 8 a.m. today that the Charleston, W.Va., police would like to start a fund raising project to assist Young's son, John Allen, 11, who is suffering an incurable disease affecting his vision.

In a teletype message, Patrolman Norman Hoover of the Charleston Police Department told Young, "We would like to start a nationwide fund raising project for the equipment needed" to assist the boy's vision.

John Allen Young, who is unable to see after dark and whose daytime vision is steadily deteriorating, recently was loaned a medical pocket-scope, a night vision device, by the U. S. Army for an experimental one-year period.

Details of the boy's successful test with the expensive military device were given in a Press-Record story and relayed throughout the country by news wires.

W. Va. police to aid GC boy

Granite City Patrolman Albert Young received word at 8 a.m. today that the Charleston, W.Va., police would like to start a fund raising project to assist Young's son, John Allen, 11, who is suffering an incurable disease affecting his vision.

In a teletype message, Patrolman Norman Hoover of the Charleston Police Department told Young, "We would like to start a nationwide fund raising project for the equipment needed" to assist the boy's vision.

John Allen Young, who is unable to see after dark and whose daytime vision is steadily deteriorating, recently was loaned a medical pocket-scope, a night vision device, by the U. S. Army for an experimental one-year period.

Details of the boy's successful test with the expensive military device were given in a Press-Record story and relayed throughout the country by news wires.

Charge 4 in railroad theft

Four Venice youths have been charged with theft in connection with the theft of 13 tires and wheels from new cars on the Terminal Railroad Association, train near the north edge of Venice, by the city dog pound, shortly after midnight Saturday.

Charged with felony counts of theft are Kevin C. Garrett, 17, of 1016 Douglas St., Floyd "Fast Black" Smith, 17, of 1127 Blissett St., Stanley A. Byrd, 17, of 545 Mercedes Ave., and Rodney Allen Jenkins, 18, of 52 Lee Wright Homes.

Madison police responded to a report of suspicious persons in Grezner Homes and alleged following a car with no lights at 1:35 a.m. Saturday from the homes to the end of Race Street near the railroad tracks.

They alleged finding four tires and rims inside the car and arrested Smith and Garrett. A 19-year-old Lee Wright Homes tenant driving the car was released without charge pending investigation.

Railroad detectives alleged seeing another car leaving the railroad yards and the car was stopped nearby. Officers alleged Byrd and Jenkins were arrested in that car and other tires were found. More tires later were found in weeds, police said.

Detectives also alleged finding a button on a railroad car which was similar to the buttons on Garrett's coat.

Officers said all of the missing tires and rims were recovered. The new car windows were broken to obtain keys which were used to open the trunks, police reported.

Indicted on two charges

A Madison County grand jury Thursday afternoon indicted James H. Crawford Jr., Brooklyn, on charges of felony and simple battery.

He allegedly stole a blank money order from Associated Grocer, Inc., St. Louis, March 1974 and attempted to cash it at $185 the same day at First National Bank in Madison.

Crawford was released on recognizance bonds totaling $3,500.

Mrs. Heyer dies in South

Mrs. Jean Heyer, widow of Otto J. Heyer, passed away Saturday at the Chattanooga Memorial Hospital in Chattanooga, Tenn.

She was native of Nashville, Tenn., and lived in Granite City from 1921 until 1938.

Private graveside services were held today at the Chattanooga Memorial Cemetery.

Survivors include one daughter, Margaret Heyer of Chattanooga; two sons, Thomas J. Heyer of Walnut Creek, Calif., and James W. Heyer of Huntsville, Ala.; one sister, Mrs. Rurt Champion of Florissant, Mo.; and one brother, Elmer Henley of Greenville, S.C.

Mrs. Sarkanj dies at 77

Mrs. Josipa Podgoriski Sarkanj, 77, of 820 Madison Ave., Madison, died at home at 2 a.m. Sunday. She had been ill for months.

Born in Yugoslavia, Mrs. Sarkanj had resided in Madison for two and a half years. She was a member of the Roman Catholic faith.

Her husband, Joseph Sarkanj, died in 1968.

Survivors include a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stanko (Milka) Yovanovic, owners and operators of Marko's Fish House in Madison; a brother, Franjo Podgoriski; two sisters, Mrs. Marica Golenic and Mrs. Toma Rudza Loncarevic.

Items valued at a total of over $3,000 were taken from a barge anchored in the middle of the Mississippi River, two miles north of Moonshine Island, between Sunday, April 20, and Friday, April 25. Genie Garris, an employee of Lahr Construction Co., Columbia, Ill., owners of the barge, said items taken were a one-inch pump and motor, a 14-foot John boat, 10 life-jackets, six master locks and keys, 500 feet of 3/4-inch manila rope, two chain saws and many tools.

the Gateway Regional Council, of which Granite City Chapter 470 is a member.

Visiting chapters included St. Louis 11, North Side 135, Altan 188, Gillespie 606, Crystal City 259, Pleasant Valley 663, St. Charles 428, Collinsville 91, Suburban West 478 and Mississippi Valley 606.

"The dance was a highly successful event. Fun was shared by all and it was great meeting members of all the other chapters," a local member related.

Chapter 470 also held a mid-week meeting last week at the Jaycee meeting hall.

Guest speaker for the evening was Dr. Paul Surbey, pastor of St. John United Church of Christ.

Eleven new members were welcomed by Mrs. Fox. Family activities for the next month announced included a pot luck dinner held Saturday; a picnic at Wilson Park Sunday.

May 4; a skating party May 11; "let's eat out" May 14; and bowling May 18.

The group will attend church May 4 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church and May 18 at St. Peter's United Church of Christ.

Adult activities for May were announced by Haldeman to include a chicken and beer dance May 3; TGIF at O'Donnals May 9; area chapter socials May 16; Saturday night socials May 17 and May 31; and card parties May 21 and 27.

Discussion meetings will be held April 29 at the home of Mrs. Fox, and May 13 at Mrs. Vincine Zierler's home. The monthly board meeting will be May 7 and the general meeting is to be held on May 28.

A membership drive for the month of May has been announced and all prospective members are being asked to call 451-7500 for information.

What are the gatherings like? There is "coffee and conversation" always, one member responds.

"Family activities include attending a different church service each month."

"There is also a regional conference each quarter, such as one held April 26 and 27. At the conference there were luncheons, dinners, dancing and four workshops—"Getting to Know Your Job," "Essentials of Leadership," "Setting Goals and Planning Action" and "Turning Theory Into Practice."

All eligible parents are welcome to visit and/or join Parents Without Partners.

To be eligible for membership the applicant must be a single parent by reason of divorce, death, separation or never being married.

Armed robbery at Mitchell area market

An armed robber, wearing a dark ski mask, took $100 in cash and a billfold with numerous credit cards from Fred Fossick, owner of the C & F Market, 317 E. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

Fossick reported he was walking to the front of the store when a youth, aged 17-20, 5-5, light brown medium-length hair, entered with a .32-caliber automatic pistol.

The intruder said, "This is a stickup; get your money out of the drawer." He was wearing a faded blue windbreaker jacket.

Fossick went to the rear of the store as instructed. He later heard an auto leave, and summoned deputies.

parent of a living child," PWP leaders explain.

Parents may write the chapter at Parents Without Partners Chapter 470, P.O. Box 832, Nameoki Station, Granite City, or may call 676-2519 or 676-4631.

The preamble to the group's constitution relates that "as conscientious single parents, it is our primary endeavor to bring our children to healthy maturity — with the full sense of being loved and accepted as persons, and with the same prospects for normal adulthood as children who mature with their two parents together."

"From the divorce or separation which divides a family or the loss of a parent by death, it is the child who suffers most."

"For children in such circumstances, to grow unscarred requires the utmost in love, understanding and sound guidance. To provide these is a responsibility inherent in either parent."

"The single parent in our society is isolated to some degree."

"The difficulties of providing for ourselves and our children a reasonable equivalent of normal family life is increased by that isolation."

"The established pattern of community life lacks both means of communication and institutions to enable us to resolve our special problems and find normal fulfillment."

"Therefore, in the conviction that we can achieve this through working together through the exchange of ideas and through mutual understanding, help and companionship which we find with one another, we have reestablished Parents Without Partners, Inc., a further common welfare and the well-being of our children."

Henry Young dies at 58

Henry Robert Young, 58, of 1512 Robin St., Venice, Ill., for one year, died at 2:45 a.m. Sunday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he had been a patient two weeks.

He was employed as manager of the F. W. Woolworth store in Edwardsville for 38 years.

Mr. Young was a lifelong resident of the Quad-Cities and a member of the First Baptist Church in Venice.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Theora Waites Young, and two sons, Robert Young IV and William Young, both in Venice. Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

George Brace succumbs at 89

Funeral services were held Friday in Wellsville, Mo., for George A. Brace, 89, of that community, the father of Mrs. Herman (Leona) Delatoye of Granite City.

Mr. Brace died April 23 after suffering an apparent heart attack or stroke. He was found lying on the floor of his home.

A resident of Wellsville from the age of 12, Mr. Brace served three terms as treasurer of Montgomery County, Mo. He also operated the Dining Car Restaurant in Wellsville for many years.

Beside Mrs. Delatoye, the survivors include two other daughters, Mrs. Katherine Langford of Santa Ana, Calif., and Mrs. Dorothy Stubblefield of Kansas City, Mo.; four sons, Albert Brace of St. Louis, Cleo Brace of Fairfax, Va., Milton of Wellsville and George A. Brace Jr. of Keokuk, Iowa; a sister, Mrs. Arlene Imholte of California; 14 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Burial was in the Wellsville Cemetery.

However, two other backup systems involving both permanent and portable "jumper pipes" were also demonstrated.

The main system centers around the new American Iron and Steel Institute larry car — so-called because it was developed for the Institute working with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

It is built to contain potential charging smoke within the coke plant system, rather than allowing it to escape.

The car rides back and forth about the three coke oven batteries with its operator working in an air-conditioned cab.

The backup systems are used when the AISI larry car is out of service for some reason.

In one system, the ovens in "A" battery have been equipped with permanently-installed jumper pipes.

When an oven is opened for charging coal, the pipes divert smoke into an adjacent, sealed oven so it cannot escape into the air.

In the second backup system for charging the 49 ovens in "B" battery and the 61 ovens in "C" battery, an older larry car has been equipped with a portable jumper pipe.

It provides an air-tight seal for a coke oven while it is being charged with fresh coal from the larry car.

The demonstration of the three systems was arranged by Dr. Donald F. Cairns, GCS vice president.

Those present included Dr. John Hudson, head of air pollution control for the Illinois EPA.

Oven charging in most coke plants accounts for the major amount of emissions for all sources at such plants.

There is widespread interest throughout the steel industry in recently-developed control systems like those at GCS.

The coke oven control system at GCS grew out of an AISI program to seek a smokeless charging system which could be used with a majority of operating coke ovens in this county.

Other experiments are being conducted at Granite City Steel on improved methods of controlling emissions when coke bursts into flames upon being pushed from an oven after the coke-making process.

better, he said he felt the worst part of the steel recession would be the April through June period.

Long-range prospects remain good for the steel industry, he indicated.

In discussing the immediate outlook for GCS people in more detail, Hildebrand said that the low level of steel orders means the Hot Strip Mill operation will be well below our original forecast.

Volume will also be adversely affected by the fact that there will be no more "conversion slabs" received for rolling on the mill for the balance of 1975.

These are the slabs received from Great Lakes Steel and Weirton Steel that are hot rolled and shipped to Midwest Steel as coils.

"The finishing operations under these conditions," he explained, "will be spotty — on an as-needed basis."

"B" Furnace had been down for 17 days in late January and early February after damage suffered in a steam eruption inside the furnace.

However, it had been carefully brought back into operation so that it was producing normal tonnages recently.

The furnace was last relined in late 1971 and early 1972.

"A" Furnace was relined in late 1974, going down Sept. 8 and being blown in Nov. 25.

Although problems developed which kept it from operating normally until mid-December.

As recently as January, we quoted paper statements by steel industry leaders — and Granite City Steel leaders — who were so sure of the high demand for steel would continue at least through the first six months of 1975.

Now, just three months later, the bottom has dropped out of things, steel orders have all but disappeared, and as of this writing hundreds of employees — both hourly and salaried — have been laid off.

That quick a reversal proves how fast our economy can change.

Late last month, officials of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board visited Granite City Steel to view the effectiveness of three different technologies for controlling coke oven charging emissions.

Most have heard much about the $2½ million automatic coal-charging system that went into operation last year.

However, two other backup systems involving both permanent and portable "jumper pipes" were also demonstrated.

The main system centers around the new American Iron and Steel Institute larry car — so-called because it was developed for the Institute working with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

March steel output at a 5-month high

Domestic raw steel output reached a five-month high in March, according to preliminary American Iron and Steel Institute data. AISI said producers poured 12,000,000 tons of steel during the month. This was an increase of 1,130,000 tons from February's 10,862,000 tons and was the highest one-month production figure since October of last year. Basic oxygen furnaces made 7,144,000 tons of steel in March, or nearly 60 per cent of the month's total output. Open hearth produced 2,318,000 tons, and electric furnaces accounted for 2,338,000 tons of the month's production. During March of last year, steel output totaled 12,758,000 tons, of which 7,069,000 tons came from B-O-Fs, 3,202,000 tons from open hearths and 2,486,000 tons from electric furnaces. During the same period of 1974, steel output totaled 37,082,000 tons, with 20,555,000 tons by B-O-Fs, 9,459,000 by open hearths and 7,068,000 by electric furnaces. AISI's steelmaking index, based on average 1967 production as 100, stood at 111.1 in March. This compares with an index of 111.3 for February and 107.2 for January.

Highway improvement down 54%—Lindberg

Road fund spending for Illinois highway improvements has dropped dramatically since 1972, Comptroller George W. Lindberg said this week in his monthly financial report. He said total spending from the road fund for highway modernization and repair is down by 54 per cent after costs of inflation are considered. During fiscal years 1971 and 1972, a total of $480 million was spent annually on state roadways, Lindberg said. The total dropped to $310 million in 1973 and was $240 million in 1974, he said. This fiscal year, the governor's estimate is $376 million.

Since 1971, highway construction costs have risen an estimated 67 per cent, Lindberg said, reducing the volume of road work the state gets for its money. Another section of the report reviewed spending under the state's bond-financed programs.

Through the first nine months of this fiscal year, Lindberg reported, $130 million or 11.3 per cent of the $1,151,000,000 appropriated by the legislature has been spent. This includes anti-pollution, capital development, coal development, school construction and transportation (highways, airports and mass transit) bond issues. Against that performance, Lindberg noted that the governor's proposed 1975-76 budget estimates bond fund spending at $800 million. "Our bond-backed spending in the past two fiscal years has run about $190 million each time. This fiscal year will be about the same. I don't think it's realistic to think the administrative ability exists in Illinois now to run that total up to $800 million in fiscal 1976," he asserted.

Regarding the condition of the state's general funds, Lindberg said the available balance was $267 million — about 12 days of spending — at the end of March, down $76 million from a year ago.

Spending continues to outstrip revenues in the general funds, Lindberg said. Total spending from the general funds — general revenue, common schools and federal revenue sharing funds — during the initial nine months of 1974-75 was up $467 million over the comparable 1973-74 period.

Taxes and other incomes to the general funds were $325 million higher in the first nine months than in the comparable period a year ago.

2 charged with burglary

Gerald D. Ishum, 19, of 2715 Buxton Ave., and Kenneth D. Harris, 17, of 2224 Washington Ave., were charged with burglary after police alleged finding them inside the home of Charles Lipscomb Jr., 2214 Washington Ave., last week.

A neighbor called police and said two young men were attempting to enter Lipscomb's home. When officers arrived, they found a rear door glass broken and the door open about two inches. Voices could be heard inside.

One young man was heard to say, "Are you ready to go? Let's grab this stuff and get out of here." A policeman said he immediately yelled, "Freeze," and entered the house.

Four hurt in 2-car crash

Four men were injured in an accident involving three autos and a house at 25th and Center streets Thursday. Official reports indicate the southbound auto of Steven Six, 1839a State St., and the eastbound car of Cecil Jarman, 20, of 2810 Nameki Road, collided in the intersection.

The Jarman auto then went out of control and struck the parked car of Raymond Wiser, 904 Twenty-fifth St., pushing the parked auto into Wiser's house. Some brickwork on the house was damaged.

Harman suffered minor injuries which did not require hospital treatment.

Six and two passengers in his car, John Allison, 1034 Greenwood St., Madison, and Eddie Dean, 21, of 5024 Lakeview Drive, Pontoon Beach, were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Dean was admitted with several cuts to his face and scalp and an injury to his right shoulder. Six and Allison declined treatment at the hospital. Six was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Vietnam aid by members of 'Y' here

The board of directors of the Tri-City Area YMCA has approved response to an emergency appeal from the National YMCA to aid with the refugee work as a result of war conditions in Cambodia and South Vietnam.

The board agreed that each board member and "Y" member will be asked for a contribution before May 5. Several board members and the executive director began an "Emergency Indo-China Fund" by making contributions. Earl Iberg, treasurer, said, "When I can make a contribution that has a person-to-person assurance in a time of crisis and desperate need, I am happy to be of help."

The YMCA World Alliance team of 40 members, mostly Vietnamese, working under Japanese "Y" director Masahito Yamashita, is displaying flexibility in moving with the people as they flee, manning temporary reception areas for unprecedented numbers of new refugees.

The two were taken to the Granite City police station and searched. It was alleged Ishum had jewelry, after shave lotion, golf gloves and a screwdriver in his clothing.

A pair of white socks was found behind the Harris home. A witness said a youth was wearing white socks on his hands when he ran from police. Harris was released on his own recognizance pending court action. Bond for Ishum was set at $10,000 and he was taken to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

FIRE DAMAGES GARAGE Fire caused about $300 damage to the garage of Ed Jones, 1812 Ferguson Ave., last week. A short in the wiring in the basement caused the fire. Firemen were on the scene 35 minutes.

North students elect Hawes

Charles Hawes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hawes, 2241 Dawn Ave., has been elected president of the Granite City High School North Student Council for the 1975-76 year. Charles, a junior and a college prep major, won the election on a platform stressing more school involvement by students, teachers and parents. Miss Cally Choate, a sophomore and daughter of Donald Choate, No. 2 Shirwin Drive, was elected first vice-president. Larry L. Libby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Libby, 1628 Venice Ave., will serve as second vice-president. Larry, a sophomore, is majoring in art and social studies and his interest lies in the theatre.

Summer safety Kiwanis topic

The need for precautions and what to do about them during summer activities such as boating, bike riding and swimming were explained to the Granite City Kiwanis Club at Charles restaurant.

Edward Kastner, a reserve officer with the Florissant Police Department, and Mrs. Veda Landreth, a Red Cross student instructor, were guests of the club.

According to Kastner, many people are needlessly injured by well-meaning citizens trying to help, but lacking in proper knowledge or training. He stressed the handling of injured persons properly is extremely important, and in many cases the person is better off being left alone until trained help is on the scene.

Another area Kastner stressed was water safety. He noted that unless a person is an experienced and strong swimmer, they never should jump into water in an effort to save someone. He said it is far better to throw a rope or reach out to a person with an arm than to jump in after them.

David Brooks, chairman of the pancake and sausage day program, reported that the

Hurt on minibiike

Scott Meyer, 14, of 2002 Richmond Ave., was injured when his minibiike overturned at Primrose and Manley avenues last week and he struck his head on the pavement.

He lost consciousness for a period and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital. He was treated for abrasions to his upper back. X-rays were taken and he was admitted for observation.

Rites for William Harned

Funeral services were conducted this morning for William S. Harned, 47, of 1023 Grand Ave., who was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 7:50 a.m. Thursday. A lifelong resident of the Quad-Cities, he was a veteran of World War II. He had been employed for 14 years in the offices of Krey Packing Co., St. Louis. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mary Harned; three daughters, Mrs. Frank (Mary) Hollenbeck and Miss Joyce Harned, both of Madison, and Mrs. Wayne (Doris) Clark of Granite City; his mother, Mrs. Eunice Harned of Madison; a brother, Ben Harned of Jennings, Mo.; two sisters, Mrs. Cal (Mary) Kammerer of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Don (Lois) Marshall of California; and two grandchildren. Details are given in the obituary column.

J. H. Richardson, 72, dies

John Henry Richardson, 72, of Rural Route One, Tennessee Ridge, Tenn., formerly of Granite City, died at 5:30 p.m. Thursday at the Clarksville (Tenn.) Memorial Hospital. He had been hospitalized for two months. A native of Clarksville, he had resided in Granite City most of his life, moving to Tennessee in 1965. Mr. Richardson was employed as a maintenance man for 22 years at the Granite City Army Installation until his retirement in 1965. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mary Richardson; five sons, Howard, Martin and Frederick Richardson, all of Granite City, John Richardson of Nashville, Tenn., and Mike Richardson, residing at home; one daughter, Mrs. Donald (Sarah) Wyman of North Berwick, Maine; 13 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday in Tennessee Ridge and burial was in the Erin (Tenn.) Cemetery.

Rotary visits OATH building

The Madison-Venice Rotary club held its Wednesday noon meeting at OATH, Inc. (Organization for the Advancement of the Handicapped), 608 State St., Madison.

Purpose of the meeting was to allow the Rotarians to view the building and the work that has been done according to Richard Kismar, program chairman.

Rotarian Milton Morris, who also is president of OATH, explained that there still is work to be done such as a new roof and siding and that this should be accomplished within the next few months from monies provided by the Madison County Board.

Morris said the value of the property keeps increasing as more improvements are made and estimated the building's present value is about $70,000. Rotary President John Blasingame appointed John Sedlack as chairman of a special committee to meet with Morris and develop a presentation so that the work of OATH, Inc., can be explained to other service clubs and civic groups in the area.

Hockey—tough sport in Canada

Ice Hockey in Thunder Bay, Canada, is a much tougher sport than in Granite City, according to Bill Hodge, coach of the strong P & S Amateurs. Bantam team, who spoke to the Granite City Optimist Club Thursday.

Hodge related that the 16-member team flew to Canada in Mid-April and competed against "some top-notch teams."

Peccer edged in 11th inning

Defending Illinois Inter-City League baseball champion Peccer edged its 1975 season opener 4-3 at Wilson Park yesterday to Highland-Peoria before hometown fans, including Senator Sam Vadalabene, Congressman Melvin Price and Ray Thomas, representing the team sponsor. Sen. Vadalabene took to the mound in pre-game ceremonies, pitching the ball to Congressman Price, with Thomas catching. Price's swing of the bat officially opened the league's 48th season.

Highland took 11 innings to defeat the local squad, scoring two runs in the third inning, one in the fourth and the winning run in the 11th.

Peccer garnered two runs in the third when Rich Schardan, who had three hits for the day, tripled and Steve Schardan and Mike Stanton both singled.

A homer in the seventh off the bat of Jim Greenwald sent the game into extra innings.

Vic Reznack got the loss, having relieved starter Stanton on the mound after 7 1/3 innings. In other scheduled league competition, Panama at Troy was rained out, and East Alton Vaux defeated Fairfax 6-4 on a three-run homer by Jim Frazier and a two-run homer by Garrett Collins.

Peccer will be at Panama next Sunday for a doubleheader starting at 1 p.m.

The league has been rounded out to six teams. The season's 90 games will include 30 doubleheaders.

Last year, the competition was reduced from eight to seven teams when Moltier of Collinsville dropped out near mid-season, resulting in the remaining teams taking turns at drawing a weekly bye.

For 1975, the Peccer Indians and Livingston have announced they will not participate in league action. One has been replaced by newly formed Fairfax of East Alton.

The league again is divided

Satmary victorious at pro-stock race

Joe Satmary of Hammond, Ind., was the winner of the pro-stock eliminations yesterday at St. Louis International Raceway, defeating six other pro-stockers for the title.

Satmary, one of the leaders in the national points race of the American Hot Rod Association, also had the fastest run of the day, covering the quarter mile in 9.98 seconds, finishing at 153.07 miles-per-hour, on a bye run.

He defeated Russ Pierson of Missouri in the first round, and Jack Schorr's Missouri Mistle Pinto of Kansas City topped Rich Thomas of St. Louis in a Camaro.

First-round action also saw Dave Paxton in the Jerry Bickel Vega of St. Louis defeat Ron Woods at the wheel of the Matt Johnson Camaro, also of St. Louis.

The Gene Lynch Pinto was unable to complete, breaking at the starting line twice. The crew rebuilt the car's engine in the pit area, but the car broke again on the second attempt to race it.

In the second round, Satmary's Pinto was unable to complete a good final run, but was unable to keep pace with the larger engine of Satmary's Camaro and Satmary took the top prize.

Bill Dagle in the Dagle and Preston Honda Barracuda from Manchester, Mo., won the top eliminator bracket, defeating Gary Bauer of Alton in the final run.

Both Steve Pearson of St. Louis and Jim Carey of Maplewood, Mo., went faster than their handicaps in selectra racing, but Pearson was declared the winner by finishing the nearest to his handicap.

Other late model division victors were: Miner, 1st heat; Kenny Schrader, 2nd heat; Norm Cox, 3rd heat; Schrader, semi-event.

Granite City's Jack Vaux piloted his sportsman race car to victory in that class's first heat race. St. Louisian Don Hoffman won the second heat race on the quarter-mile oval.

St. Louis Auto Racing Association midjet racers will join the late model and sportsman classes here Saturday in a triple racing program beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Spinning 'wheels' don't deter winner

Defending Tri-City Speedway late model stock car champion Len Gittermeier, St. Charles, Mo., passed the spinning race on the third lap of a 25-lap feature race here Saturday night and was never seriously challenged for his first victory of the new season.

St. Louisian Jim Groceman captured the sportsman division main event in which Granite City's Red Bailey placed fourth. Bailey is that division's defending track champion.

Miner dashed into the lead at the drop of the green flag but yielded the lead to Gittermeier upon losing control of his race car going into the second corner of the half-mile dirt oval.

Missouri's Russ Wallace finished second and East

Alton's C. C. Corbin third. The victory was the second of the evening for Gittermeier, who will start his rookie year at Chapman next month on the 100-lap main event.

Other late model division victors were: Miner, 1st heat; Kenny Schrader, 2nd heat; Norm Cox, 3rd heat; Schrader, semi-event.

Cougars sweep three

Behind the relentless pitching of its big (6-6, 230-pound) righthanded pitcher, Nick Baltz, the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville baseball team defeated Indiana State University-Evansville Sunday 4-1 to sweep a three-game weekend series on the Screaming Eagles and run the Cougars' winning streak to seven straight and their record for the year to 12-7.

Baltz gave up only four hits in posting his third victory against two losses, and for the first time this season batted in his regular turn instead of a designated hitter being used. He came through with a run-scoring single in the seventh frame to complete the Cougars' scoring.

In the sweep over Indiana State, Cougar batters fattened their averages as they won the opener 5-4 Saturday in nine innings.

South defeated first Peoria Limestone 2-1 Saturday morning and then Johnston City by the same score that afternoon.

South collected three hits in Peoria's five, and committed the fewest errors, 1-4. Warrior Kirk Chapman relieved hurler Randy Lyster in the sixth inning to lead the team to a 3-0 victory.

League President Jim Greer notes that registration for baseball will be open to boys ages 7-18 and softball to girls ages 9-16.

Each athlete must present a fee at the time of registration. Greer said each registrant qualifies for a May 7 bus trip to Bush Stadium to view the Philadelphia-St. Louis baseball game free of charge.

errors, 3-2. Warriors Paul Muehl and Randy Smith garnered hits for a run in the second inning. In the fourth, Muehl singled, stole and scurried home on a hit by Kevin Winans. Johnston City scored in the seventh.

Collecting South hits also were John Pritchard, three, and Kirk Champion, one.

North's winning pitcher John Scott, relieved by Daris Davis in the seventh, allowed Johnston City three hits while Warrior batters collected nine. South had one error to the visitors' two.

Bill Cary started North's three-run second inning with a double. Gene Logas and John Scott singled, Darrell Page doubled, and Harvey Breckner bunted a run across the plate.

Jeff Reiter walked in the fifth and scored on a double by Mark Davis before Johnston City could score a run.

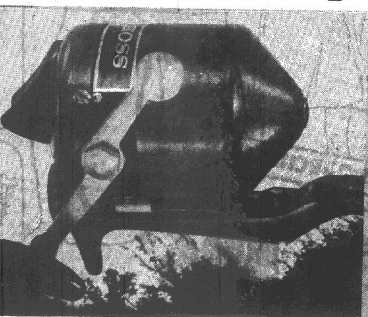

Against Peoria, Steeler Bill Dickerson went the distance, fanning nine batters and allowing five hits while North batters collected 15. North made one error and Peoria, two.

North tallied two runs in the fourth on Reiter's double Cary's walk, and hits by Ed Schmidt and Bill Dickerson.

For three fifth-inning runs, Dave Harrison singled, Richard Schmidt sacrificed, Reiter walked Mark Davis, Carr and Ed Schmidt got hits and there was a sacrifice fly by Page.

Steeler batters added six in the sixth inning. Harrison singled, Richard Schmidt reached base on an error, Davis walked and Carr, Ed Schmidt, Dickerson, Breckner and Harrison delivered hits. Peoria mustered a run in the seventh.

Rail freight car components spark record Amsted sales, earnings

Amsted Industries announced last week in Chicago that earnings and sales in the first half of its 1975 fiscal year were the highest in the company's history for any six-month period.

Earnings in the six months ended March 31 were $17,771,000, a significant increase from $5,533,000 a year ago. Earnings per share rose to $0.97 from $0.06.

Sales in the six-month period were $258,423,000, up 23 per cent from $211,136,000 last year. The firm's American Steel Foundries include a major plant in Granite City.

For the quarter, net income was $4,051,000, up from the $3,315,000 earned in the comparable period a year ago.

January-March 1975. Per-share earnings rose to $0.97 from $0.06.

Sales for the quarter were $116,000,000, a 15 per cent increase from the $101,000,000 in the March quarter of last year.

Joseph B. Lanterman, chairman, and Gert Smith, president, said, "All of the sales increase, in both the quarter and six months, was attributable to the continued good demand for railroad products and prices more realistically reflecting increased production costs, which were not possible under government controls a year ago."

They noted that sales of general industrial products in the six months were about the same as last year.

Construction and building products were down, primarily in water pipe, as a result of the substantial drop in home building.

The two executives said Amsted's backlog of orders on March 31 amounted to $323,000,000, compared to $265,000,000 a year earlier and $307,000,000 at Sept. 30, 1974.

Orders for components for freight cars accounted for substantially all of the increase from a year ago and are the single largest element of the backlog.

Although there have been some cancellations of new freight car orders in recent weeks, Lanterman and Smith said, the backlog of Amsted's side frames, bolsters and wheels remains at an unprecedented level — when compared to prior years.

The backlog of general industrial products has decreased from the level at the beginning of the fiscal year, but continues higher than a year ago. In the past several weeks, some decline in new orders for wire rope and roller chains has become evident.

Demand for machine tools, fifth wheels for truck tractor-trailers, piston pins and powdered metal parts remains soft when compared to the recent past.

Unfilled orders for construction and building products, which account for the smallest portion of the backlog, are down from the end of the last fiscal year and the year-ago level.

In addition to reduced demand for pipe products because of the decline in housing starts, there has been a slowing of new orders for pre-coated metal for pre-fabricated buildings.

Lanterman and Smith recalled that on March 3, 1975, Amsted announced it had reached an agreement in principle to acquire the business of Hydramation Filter Co. of Livonia, Mich., for approximately $10,000,000 cash. It is expected that this acquisition will be finalized within the next few months.

Hydramation, a manufacturer of liquid-treatment equipment, systems, accessories and supplies, had sales in the fiscal year ended July 31, 1974, of $24,000,000 and earnings of $1,013,000. This company, which employs 500 people, operates plants in Livonia and Novi, Mich.; Tongeren, Belgium; and Poole, Dorset, England. It also has joint ventures in Italy, Japan and Brazil.

During the six-month period ended March 31, Amsted additions to fixed assets amounted to $9,800,000 and are expected to amount to about $30,000,000 for the entire 1975 fiscal year.

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD Mon., April 28, 1975 Page 11

excluding the Hydramation acquisition.

While the accounts receivable balance is up from a year ago, the number of days' sales reflected in the accounts receivable balance is actually down slightly and remains at a good level as a result of concentrated collection efforts, it was related.

Inventories at March 31 were up significantly from last year due in part to the higher level of business activity. A decrease in inventories is anticipated in the balance of the year.

Amsted had no debt at the end of the quarter, compared to $10,500,000 a year ago.

Lanterman and Smith commented that, "Obviously, the recession and inflation continue to raise question marks about the economy.

"However, barring any further major weakness in the business climate, sales and earnings should be at good levels in the last half of the fiscal year."

Complete first aid course

Members of the Southern Baptist Church, 931 Blissett St., Vandalia, have completed the new, revised American Red Cross standard first aid and personal safety training course.

The church ladies are associated with the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service (CHIEP), a consumer and homemaking education program under the direction of Miss Diana Rohde, supervisor, of Edwardsville.

The class was organized by Mrs. Leora Howlett, program assistant. The pastor of the church is the Rev. S. L. Calhoun. First Aid Instructor is Clifford Dunham, an employee of American Steel Foundries and a volunteer instructor for American Red Cross for many years.

The new course now requires 14 hours minimum class room training and equips the student with the knowledge and skills to help prevent accidents and to aid the sick and injured. It includes such emergency knowledge as to how to restore breathing, how to stop bleeding, and how to treat for poisoning as well as caring for many other emergencies the homemaker may encounter. Any group interested in this training may call the American Red Cross Chapter, 2021 Edison Ave., Granite City, phone 452-7184. There is no charge for this course. The only cost is $1.00 for the textbook which the student keeps.

Prather parents to hear students

Concerns about school and home will be discussed by a panel of Prather Junior High School students during the third meeting of the Concerned Prather Parents group which will begin at 7 p.m. today in the school cafeteria.

A question and answer session will follow the discussion. Parents are being urged to attend to help improve communications with their children. Students will be admitted only with a parent.

Cemetery called ecological asset

A well-kept cemetery is an ecological asset, especially in crowded urban areas, Michael J. Howlett, Illinois secretary of state, said Friday.

Howlett was the luncheon speaker at the annual spring meeting of the Illinois Cemetery Association, held at Springfield.

As auditor of public accounts for 13 years before his election as secretary, he administered the Illinois Cemetery Car Act.

"Changes in the cemetery industry have been more rapid in our time than they had been for centuries previously," Howlett said Friday.

"We still have the country churchyard cemetery, but the trend is to larger cemeteries. As population increases, land becomes more expensive. The graveyard which has been replaced by machinery fueled with gasoline.

"Life styles are changing. Families do not tend graves of their members as they did in earlier generations. They don't have the time.

"With advanced planning and new management techniques, the new cemetery looks more like a park.

"Years ago, people didn't want a cemetery near their homes. They thought a graveyard in the neighborhood would lower property values.

"Today, occasional objectors still turn up at zoning hearings, but more and more property owners testify they would like to have a restful area of trees and green lawn nearby.

"And use is a hot issue in many communities today. Cities and suburbs are heavily involved in long-range plans for land development — where to allow high-rise apartment buildings, how much frontage residential lots should have, what areas should be set aside for industry, where new roads should be.

"Cemeteries are a factor in community planning. Local planners, under pressure from the people of the community, must decide sometimes whether to permit new cemeteries, whether to let existing cemeteries expand, and even whether unused land now owned by cemeteries should be put to some other pressing use.

"With cars and people inhaling oxygen and exhaling carbon dioxide or carbon monoxide, we need trees and grass to absorb the carbon gases and put oxygen back into the air.

"Today's beautiful, modern cemetery is a stabilizing influence in new areas of population.

"Cemeteries are subject to governmental regulation, in the interest of health, safety and general welfare. For the best possible cemetery service, communicate with your legislators.

"Effective communication requires participation in a democratic process. Know your legislators, and help them in all phases of their work, without waiting for an emergency that directly involves your own business," Howlett concluded.

Lafayette on dial-a-story

By JEANETTE KAMPEN
Granite City Public Library
Since the first day of operation on April 17, the new Dial-A-Story program at Granite City Public Library has proved to be very popular with children in Granite City and the surrounding area.

During this week, the following stories are scheduled:
April 28-29—"How Did Lafayette Help the United States?" by Laura Bannon;
May 2-4—"Why Does the American Flag Have Stars and Stripes?"
The "Magic" number to dial is 876-1653. If you get a busy signal, just keep trying—you'll be glad you did.
Reference question of the week: How many women are presently in the U.S. Congress?

Answer: House of Representatives—eighteen (including Cardiss Collins of Illinois); Senate—none.

Michener's "Centennial" continues its long run at the top of the fiction best seller list. Candidates for the list, according to "Publishers Weekly," are "Wind Chill Factor" by Thomas Gifford and "Spindrift" by Phyllis Whitney. Still heading the nonfiction list is Berlitz's "Bermuda Triangle." Candidates for this list include "Before the Fall" by William Safire and "Meeting at Potsdam" by Charles L. Mee Jr.

All these books either are available now at GCPL or will be available soon.

and men to show the progress women have made and the new opportunities presently open for women.
Two new biographies are available. "Thurber," by Burton Bernstein, is an insightful and entertaining view of the humorist. Richard Hall narrates the life and travels of Henry M. Stanley in "Stanley: An Adventurer Explored." Stanley's travels are some of the most exciting in the history of exploration, and his meeting with Dr. Livingstone in the heart of Africa is famous.

NEWS ITEMS: A. J. Cervantes relates his years as mayor of St. Louis in "Mr. Mayor." Cervantes believes federal funding for city problems is essential if urban areas are to regain their former status.

"Antarctica: The Last Continent" by Ian Cameron is a descriptive, well-illustrated book on the far southern continent. Cameron discusses the numerous expeditions which have explored Antarctica.

Susan and Martin Tolchin's "Clout—Womanpower and Politics" is a popular study of women who have learned the lesson of practical politics and who now command attention. The Tolchins include interviews with politically involved women

City to enforce limits on fence measurements

Granite City residents erecting "privacy fences"—most of them from six to eight feet high—are in violation of city ordinances which now limit fences to three feet in front and 4½ feet on the sides and in back, members of the City Council were told last week.

Building Inspector Robert Kelly, whose department is authorized to enforce the ordinance, said he believes the council should consider revising the ordinance to be more in line with the fences residents are erecting.

Alderman Emerald Daves said people who have built fences too high should be made to comply with the ordinance.

On a motion by Alderman Gerald Farnley, Kelly was instructed to enforce the city ordinance. Meanwhile, the city attorney and the council will look into the possibility of raising present fence limitations.

Mobile home exposition

The second annual Mississippi River Mobile Home Exposition sponsored by the Illinois Mobile Home Association will be held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville May 10-11.

The exposition will remain open from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. on Saturday and from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is 25 cents for students with identification and 50 cents for non-students.

Forty single-wide, double-wide and triple-wide modular homes will be on display in parking lots 12 and 13. Accessories also will be on exhibition, including such items as trailer skirting, stairs, awnings and sheds for use with mobile homes.
Food service will be available at the showgrounds for visitors to the home show.
Additional information may be obtained by contacting Bonnie Little, coordinator of Conference and Institutes, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

HOUSING AVAILABLE. Charles Schweizer, director of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Foundation, appears to be building a third condominium. Actually, the wren and bluebird houses are being sold by the Foundation to help build a student loan fund. Otto Weigand, retired Edwardsville cabinet maker, constructs the houses as a hobby and they are sold at the Foundation office for $2 each.

Venice School site of hearing

A proposal to continue the basic Title VII project in Venice and to start a pilot project to attempt to eliminate minority group isolation will be the topic of a public hearing starting at 7:15 p.m. tomorrow in the Venice High School library.

The Title VII Project "Micro" deals with improving mathematics skills, interpersonal relations and communications, and reading opportunities.

Oliver's Passbook Primer

P is for passbook
The simplest kind of savings account. It's called "passbook" because that's what you get. A pocket-sized book that holds a complete record of your deposits, withdrawals and balance—as simple as the record you keep in your checkbook.

A is for anytime
You can deposit anytime, withdraw anytime. Other savings plans require you to wait a certain period or until a certain date before withdrawing. But, with a passbook, your money's yours whenever you need it.

S is for safe
Completely safe. At Illinois Federal, your account is insured up to $20,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, a governmental agency.

S is for sun
Every time it goes up and comes down your savings increase. Because Illinois compounds your interest daily. That means higher annual earnings. And, if you withdraw before the end of a quarter, you still earn interest for every single day the money was on deposit.

B is for best rates anywhere
We pay the highest interest allowed by law on passbook accounts. The current rate is 5¼% annually. If it changes, you'll automatically start earning the new rate.

O is for only
It only takes a few minutes to open a passbook account. Do it now. Then add to it little by little or lot by lot.

O is for offices
Illini has four. You can transact your business at any one of them, regardless of where you opened your account. Or save by mail with our "trip-saver" envelopes—the postage is paid both ways.

K is for keep saving
You'll be surprised how fast your savings grow into beautiful things, even if you start with peanuts.

'Pysanky' in symbolic use since 988 A.D.

In the Eastern Orthodox church, the egg has been used as a symbol of rebirth since 988 A.D. when Russia embraced Christianity fully.

Decorating eggs (pysanky) is an artistry that has been handed down through the centuries, and Ukrainians are famous the world over for the colorful Easter eggs.

They are created in a manner similar to silk batik work. Lines of wax are drawn with a fine stylus (Kistka). Intermittent dippings in the various dyes produce the desired color designs. Geometric and free-hand designs are both used.

Pysanky are not made to be eaten, but are made as gifts for relatives and friends, usually at the Easter (The Holy Pascha) observance, and are treasured and displayed in the home.

It also is traditional in some regions of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics to place Pysanky on the graves of family members.

Devout Ukrainians attach deep religious significance to Pysanky designs and embellish their eggs with certain designs of religious intent.

Some of the designs most commonly used and their symbolic meanings are butterflies, representing the resurrection, crosses for Christ and Christianity, pine trees for youth and healthy ribbons for eternity, waves for cleansing, and baskets for the Holy Trinity.

GC special ed student to get high school diploma

A Granite City youth who has successfully completed the TMH (Trainable Mentally Handicapped) program at Venice High School will receive a high school diploma.

The unusual circumstance was explained to the Venice Board of Education last week by Supt. of School Robert N. Vickers, who said the student has been recommended to receive a diploma by the Special Education Region I director and his class instructor.

"The boy's parents are very pleased that he will receive a Venice High School diploma," Vickers stated.

Venice School District, together with the Granite City and Madison districts, form Special Education Region I. Pupils participating in the programs attend schools in all three districts according to age levels, programs and advancement, regardless in which district the child resides, Vickers said.

The TMH student is the first to be graduated in Venice and is believed to be one of the second graduate in all three districts.

In addition to approving issuance of a diploma, the board approved two programs sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of the Tri-Cities.

Approval was granted to an experimental bicycle lending project, sponsored by the Chamber, Tri-City Area YMCA and Coordinated Youth Services as a deterrent to theft and to aid police recover lost and stolen machines. The bicycle identification project will be carried out at the elementary level only, the board was advised.

Permission also was granted for the Chamber to enter "Pride" logos contest to be entered by Venice pupils.

The winning entry will receive a $50 first place award and be used in the Quad-Cities to promote the area as a "good place to live," board members were informed. Other awards will be presented to participants, the Chamber officers said.

Purchase of a new check protector device, costing $917, less a $100 trade-in on the old machine which requires extensive repairs, was authorized.

Vickers reported the district's Title VII program recently was reviewed by personnel from the Chicago office, who said the program probably will be funded again next year. The evaluators suggested that new program be added to the current schedule.

Permission was given for the freshman class outing to Six Flags over Mid-America on May 27, and for a class sponsored car wash. The outing will be made on a Venice-Lincoln bus.

A letter from a Venice faculty member formally protesting a "letter of honorable dismissal" from the board stated the communication negated her "contractual continued service in the district" and called the move both "arbitrary and unreasonable."

Dismissal letters were sent to a total of 26 Venice teachers, including all eight teachers at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center, Mrs. Althea Cross, Title VII program director, and others having less than six years service, with one exception.

Jack Tolliver, board president, said similar letters have been mailed teachers for the past three years to protect the district should federal and state courts rule that the "contractual" clause not be refunded in the next school year.

The winning entry will

Expect 400 for Goodpaster talk

Four hundred persons are expected to hear General Andrew J. Goodpaster, retired Army officer, a native of Granite City and one of the most widely respected generals in the post-World War II era, at the St. Clair County Medical Society's annual public affairs dinner on Thursday evening.

The event, open to the public, will be held in Augustine's Restaurant, Belleville, and will open with a social hour at 6 p.m. Dinner will be served at 7 p.m., followed by General Goodpaster's remarks.

Reservations may be made by phone to the St. Clair County Medical Society's office at 4625 West Main St., Belleville. The office is open from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. daily.

Reservations also may be made through Cal Johnson's Answering Service at 1-397-3668 or in the Quad-Cities area through Norman Holsinger at 451-0999. Tickets cost $7.50.

The Medical Society annually sponsors the public affairs dinner as a means of acquainting the members and the public with medical or other public issues of the day. Dr. Wilson West is chairman of the committee.

Gen. Goodpaster will speak on "National Security in the 1970s." Before military retirement, he served as supreme Allied and U.S. commander in Europe. He was succeeded by Gen. Alexander Haig.

Aged woman 3-car crash hit by car

Mrs. Clara Ansley, 75, of 219 Kirkpatrick Home, was injured while attempting to cross Nameki Road at 25th Street when she was bumped by the southbound car of Carolyn Wheatley, Caseyville.

The driver said Mrs. Ansley stepped into the street and then tried to return to the sidewalk, the driver was unable to stop the car before bumping the woman. Mrs. Ansley was knocked to the pavement.

She was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was admitted with a broken right wrist and an abrasion to her right knee.

3-car crash injuries four

Four persons were injured in a three-car accident at Ponton Road and Sara Street at last week involving the auto of Bonnie Ward, 22, Washington Park; John Gill, 55, Collinsville; and Kathleen Hudson, 39,008 Gaslight Walk, Ponton Beach.

Ward was charged with driving while under the influence of liquor.

The drivers and Gill's wife, Jeanette Gill, suffered injuries. Ward was taken by police to St. Elizabeth Hospital but declined medical attention.

Gill was treated for injuries to his left elbow and left chest. X-rays were taken and he was released. The two women suffered minor injuries which did not require hospital treatment.

RADIO TAKEN FROM CAR
A citizens' band radio worth $200 was stolen from the car of Lamorne Kinder, 2208 Missouri Ave., after a car window was forced open, it was reported at 7:45 a.m. Friday.

PISTOL IS STOLEN
An .44s pistol was stolen from the drawer in the rear bar at Yonch's Tavern, 849 Niedringhaus Ave., it was noticed at 8:25 a.m. Friday.

GC fire department adds three shift commanders

A recommendation by the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners that the rank of assistant fire chief in the Granite City Fire Department be abolished and replaced with three shift commanders was approved by the City Council last week.

The action was taken on a motion by Alderman Earl Baker, chairman of the council's Fire and Water Committee who told the council committee to work out any further details necessary to the changeover.

Record the changeover to shift commanders on a temporary basis was made two months ago.

He said the three shift commanders are Assistant Fire Chief Charles Hileman, and Capt. Leonard Wilson and Capt. Al Brandes who are the two senior officers on the Granite City fire fighting force.

Parents said the new system provides command personnel 24 hours per day, provides more men at all fires and should have a bearing on insurance rates and fire losses in the city. The Illinois Inspection Bureau has recommended that Granite City have two more senior officers since 1964, he noted.

Shift commanders will respond to all fires except weed, rubbish and car fires unless called by the officers in charge, and will respond to all inhalator and rescue calls.

Hileman will be in charge of the Division of Fire Prevention. Each shift commander will make four commercial inspections per week-day and turn inspection reports into the chief's office. Initial arson investigations will be by the shift commander. They will be turned over to Hileman for final action, Parente said.

Captain Wilson will be in charge of all buildings and grounds for maintenance and cleanliness. Work will be equalized as nearly as possible. Other shift commanders will report to Captain Wilson any damage to property he added.

Captain Brandes will be in charge of all apparatus and tools, fire hose and other miscellaneous equipment. Any loss, damage, or repairs needed will be reported to Captain Brandes.

Miniature golf course construction

An 18-hole miniature golf course is under construction at the Lakeview Driving Range on Route 162, about one mile east of East 23rd Street, Bob Schoeber, operator of the facility, announced this week.

A May 15 opening is planned.

"We are very enthusiastic about the miniature golf course and hope it will be just as successful as the driving range has been since it opened two and one-half years ago," Schoeber commented.

The 18-hole course was designed by Schoeber who said he wanted to assure that the course would be a challenging one.

"We purchased the most modern equipment available to make the course as enjoyable as possible for individuals and families," he explained.

He said anyone making a hole-in-one on the 18th hole will receive a free bucket of balls for the driving range.

The driving range also has a three-foot metal bulls-eye which, if hit, results in a free bucket of balls for the golfer. The driving range is open daily from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

THE SCHERMER BULLETIN
Avery returned from Hot Springs last week with some new ideas concerning our ad. As you may notice, today's ad contains fewer items than usual, but the ones that are there count. There are some good buys around when one can find them. The liver 'n onions in today's ad is a prime example.

Speaking of good everyday buys, we have a shopping hint for you. We have always claimed that our everyday prices are lower, and we got a good example last week. One of the major chains in our area had whole pork loins at 99¢ per pound as a lead item in their meat ad. In addition, it was noted that there was a 3¢ per pound charge for slicing. Now, what do you think our REGULAR price on whole pork loins was last week? That's right, 99¢, and we never make ANY charge for slicing. So when you see something advertised by the competition that we don't show in our ad, particularly in meat or produce, check our EVERYDAY price... You might get a surprise.

Graham's Business Products, Inc., a subsidiary of Grahams Book Store, wishes to announce to it's many valued customers and friends the relocation of its business. The firm will be moving to the Bellemore Shopping Center, to the building currently occupied by Bellemore Sporting Goods. Our move will take place sometime between June 15 and July 1. We have made arrangements with Illinois Bell to retain our current telephone numbers, so we will continue to be as close to you as your phone. We will also continue to make daily deliveries.

As most of you know, Grahams has been at 1915 Delmar since 1922. We have enjoyed a warm relationship with the many downtown merchants over the past 53 years. It has also been our pleasure to serve the many residents of the area and community during these years, and we hope that you will follow us out to our new home.

But, the fact remains that we have simply outgrown our current facility and need to have more room so that our business can prosper and grow. We expect to be able to better serve you, our customers, in our new location. Western Union Telegraph Service will also be moving with us. And, we will continue to sell American Express Money Orders. We will also be expanding some of the current product lines that we now carry and will be adding many new product lines.

Watch the Granite City Press-Record for our store clearance sale upcoming very soon.

Again, thanks for your many years of patronage in our downtown location and we hope to see you at our new location in late June.

Thebeau-Hudson vows at St. John Lutheran

Candlelight illuminated the sanctuary and large arrangements of summer flowers in pink, green and white dressed the altar — surrounded by branched candelabra which held lighted pink tapers in hurricane lamps and garlands of similar with pink satin bows and streamers — for the wedding of Miss Debra Jeanne Hudson and Gregory Lawrence Thebeau on April 18 at St. John Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Kenneth Schmitt, cousin of the bride, assisted by the Rev. Samuel Boda, performed the double ring ceremony at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene D. Hudson, 2832 Michigan Ave. Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Casimir Rozycki, reside at 4045 Sara Ave.

During the service, Miss Eric Mills sang "One Alone," "The Ring" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Judy Owens. Joseph Owens, trumpet, accompanied the organ for the processional and recessional.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of white organza and cluny lace. The high neckline, bodice and trim on full lantern sleeves were enhanced with cluny lace. From an Empire waist, a full skirt with a long attached train extended gracefully to the floor.

A matching Juliet bonnet held a bridal illusion veil attached at the crown.

The bride was escorted by her father down the white-carpeted aisle, lighted with pink tapers in hurricane lamps.

She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses, stephanotis in clouds of pink baby's breath surrounded by variegated greenery, with trailing green satin streamers.

Matron of honor, bridesmaids and candlelighters selected identical pink print halter dresses with candy pink lining. The high-neck sleeveless halter gowns had accents of green braided trim, Empire waists and soft silhouette skirts. Long-sleeved bolero style jackets complemented the gowns.

The attendants wore pink picture hats with olive green satin streamers and carried olive green Chantilly lace fans topped with arrangements of pink roses, stephanotis, pink baby's breath and variegated foliage with pink satin streamers.

The candlelighters wore wristlets of pink roses and the baby's breath accented with olive green ribbon.

Mrs. Barbara Steinhauer was matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Ruth Jolly, Miss Jacklyn Hudson, sister of the bride, Miss Kathy Hudson, the bride's cousin, and Miss Patricia Ann Hudson, sister of the bride.

The candlelighters were Miss Pamela Jo Hillmer and Miss Patricia Ann Hillmer.

Clarence Aramowicz attended the groom as best man.

Richard Thebeau, the groom's brother, Randall Rapp, Jeffrey Jolly and Thomas Hudson, brother of the bride, were groomsmen. Kevin Karcher and Kenneth Reuter escorted the guests to their seats.

The flower girl, Beth Ann King, was attired in a gown identical to the bridesmaids and wore a miniature picture hat with olive green streamers. She carried a white basket filled with pink roses, stephanotis and pink baby's breath, with pink streamers and wore a pink rose corsage.

Shawn Doolin was the ringbearer.

Attending the guest book was Miss Sharon Hudson, cousin of the bride, and Miss Susan Grimes, distributed rice packets.

The reception was held immediately following the service in the Church Fellowship Hall. The groom's parents had hosted a rehearsal dinner in the Church Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. Hudson, mother of the bride, chose a long pink satin gown complemented with a jacket of ruffled lace edged in pink satin to match the gown. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses and pink baby's breath.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Rozycki, selected a long gown of blue knit with long sleeves accented with a sleeveless lace jacket. She wore a gardenia corsage surrounded with pink baby's breath.

A graduate of Granite City High School South, the former Miss Hudson is attending SIUE at Edwardsville, Mo., where she is currently employed as a teacher assistant for Community Unit School District No. 9 in Granite City.

The groom graduated from Granite City High School South and will graduate from SIUE as an accountant on June 13.

Mrs. Hudson, mother of the groom, has taken an assistant position with Arthur A. Andersen in St. Louis upon graduation and is presently employed at Farm Fresh.

The couple now resides at Tower Lake Apartments, SIUE. Out-of-town guests included the Rev. Marie Hunt, Mrs. Robert Dawes and children, Susan and Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tilley, and Mrs. William Tilley all of Brazil, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Russell Herndon and son, Rusty, Indianapolis, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Elders and daughter, Christy, Kankakee, and the Rev. and Mrs. Billy M. Hunt of Topeka, Kan.

TRY TO SEAL UNIT

The motor home of Walt Aerne, 3211 Edgewood Ave., parked inside the fenced-in America Warehouse lot at 25th Street and the railroad tracks, was rammed into the cyclone fence gate several times in an apparent attempt to steal the unit last week. A set of keys to the vehicle was stolen. The interior of another truck in the lot was ransacked.

Also present were Mesdames Loretta McDaniel, William Branding, Betty Yarbush, Diane Hartzel, Daisy Cassidy, Vickie Campbell, Greta Lerch, Bettye Samsing, Marion Willaredt, Estelle Mullenix and daughter Paula, Maureen Cox, and daughters Theresa and Anita, Mae Schuttko, Marge O'Neil, Susan Willaredt, Marcella Epping, Miss Jacklyn Willaredt, Miss Debbie Samsing, Miss Shelly Hartzel.

Sr. Citizens hear Officer Friendly

Anchorage Senior Citizens discussed the forthcoming parade on May 1 in conjunction with senior citizen month to be observed in May, during a luncheon meeting at the recreation hall.

Granite City Patrolman Glenn Wright, Officer Friendly, presented a program following the covered-dish luncheon.

The Rev. Roy Mervin gave the opening prayer and pledge to the flag and closing meditations were offered by the Rev. LeRoy Filly.

Fifty-six members and four guests attended the session. Guests were Mrs. Eleanor Patterson, president of the YMCA Senior Citizen Club, and Everett Morlen, David Morgan and Catherine Heike of Moberly, Mo.

During the social hour, Dr. E. L. Strotheide gave a talk on chiropractic health measures.

45 attend genealogy workshop

Approximately 45 members and guests of the Drusilla Andrews Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution attended a mini-workshop in genealogy conducted by the St. Louis Genealogical Society last week.

Cities represented were Shipman, Alton, Madison, Belleville, Granite City, Clayton and Overland, Mo.

Mrs. Dorothy Griffith and Mrs. Ruth Seibel of the society conducted the two-hour workshop with the idea that everyone was a beginner in procedures to search for an ancestor or a family tree.

Several persons indicated an interest in more advanced information and that may be provided at future meetings sponsored by the DAR group.

Packets of materials listing genealogy records that can be ordered through the National Archives of the federal government were handed out.

The Granite City Public Library provided a listing of their holdings in genealogy, which was also distributed.

Mrs. Griffith advised each one to investigate the Gambrell Catalog in the downtown St. Louis public library which provides a listing of every state, subdivided into counties, and indicates the extensive genealogy holdings of the St. Louis library.

The University City library's second floor also is devoted to the holdings of the St. Louis Genealogical Society and is open to the public.

The workshop was closed with an invitation for all those interested to attend the "Spirit of '76 Fair" sponsored by the Genealogical Society and to be held at the Ethical Society of St.

Louis Auditorium, 901 Clayton Road, St. Louis, on June 7. The fair will include exhibits and displays of genealogy aids, the Surname Board to locate missing cousins, a trading post to buy or exchange old books, and photocopying of old records or books.

Topics to be covered in lectures will be "Virginia and West Virginia Research," "Puritanical Puritans?," "Hessians in the Revolution," "Loyalists in the American Revolution," "Revolution in the Environs of St. Louis," "Why, When & Where to Start," "Scotch-Irish Defend Their Dream," "The Revolution Colonial Religious Centers," "How to Publish," and "Old Line State and its Records."

Pre-registration by May 25 is encouraged and new members also are being sought. Persons interested may contact The St. Louis Genealogical Society, Fair Finance Committee, Suite 261, 1617 South Brentwood Blvd., St. Louis, Mo., 63144.

Additional Genealogical Society members from Granite City present were Mrs. Emma Schoen, and Mrs. Dolores Robey.

DAR members in attendance were Misses Mary Case, Nellie Hart, and Ella Ray Smith, and Mesdames Mamie Prohardt, Eva Meier, Janet Wilson, Jane Ann Vanders, Barbara Williams, Mildred Whyers, Ruth McCarthy, Margaret Belt, and Ruth Mitchell.

The final meeting of the DAR for this season will be held May 17 at 1 p.m. at Charlie's Restaurant. It will be an individual-selection luncheon with Mrs. Whyers presenting the day's program.

Attends pro-life meeting

A statewide pro-life workshop was held last week at St. Teresa High School, Decatur, sponsored by the Illinois Right to Life Association and attended by nine Granite City residents.

Topics discussed during the day-long conferences were population, communication, political action, education, fund raising, human life amendment and organizational set up for pro-life groups.

Speakers at the sessions included Jay Bowman from Atlanta, Ga., who is the Georgia director to the national Right to Life organization; Joe Scheidler of Chicago, executive director of the Illinois Right to Life; and Felicia Gookin, Illinois director to the national association.

Those attending from this area were Mesdames Vicki Jacobs, Betty Stegmeyer, Debbie McGary, Sharon Loftus, Helen DeTuntz, Mary Niebur, Pat Fenton, Gail Neidhardt and Mr. Lonnie Fenton.

Foreign churches topic of Presbyterian Women

Colonel Charles B. Schweizer was guest speaker at the annual Spring Guest Day of the United Presbyterian Women held in the fellowship hall of First United Presbyterian Church last week.

Mrs. Austin Witter, program chairman, introduced Col. Schweizer, an officer of the SIUE Foundation, who showed slides and gave a commentary on "Churches of England, France, Spain and Bulgaria."

A 6:30 smorgasbord dinner was served by the Navigators, a couples organization of the church, to 75 people.

The Rev. David Maxton gave the invocation and Jack Johnson, organist, provided music throughout the dinner hour.

Mrs. Gladys Pape, president of the UPW, welcomed the members and guests. She announced that baby showers had been held during the month by each of the four church circle groups.

Mrs. Dee Roberts presented the infant layettes to Mrs. Frank Ehler, chairman of the newborn layette project of Quad-City Church Women United.

All items are distributed throughout referrals by Coordinated Youth Services and the Salvation Army.

After the program, a singalong was enjoyed, with Rev. Maxton leading the songfest and Jack Johnson accompanying at the piano.

Prizes for the evening were won by Ethel Martin, Lily Dod and Helen Matson.

All joined in the Mizpah benediction at the close of evening.

Mrs. Peggy Worley was coordinator of the event, assisted by committee chairmen, including Lucille Bush, Eunice Witter, Helen Johnson, Bernadine Cooley, Helen Matson, Virginia Mielich, Florence Woodward, Sandra Worley, Irene Pearson and Anna Mae Wetton.

Table centerpieces were hand-crocheted baskets filled with floral arrangements, and favors were small birds.

INFANT LAYETTES prepared by the four circle groups of the First United Presbyterian Church and presented to Mrs. Frank Ehler, center, chairman of the layette project of Quad-City Church Women United. The presentation was at the church's spring guest day dinner. Presenting the gifts are Mrs. Elbert Roberts, left, and Mrs. Alfred Pape, right; the latter is president of the UPW.

Pack 7 studies Indian lore

Following the "Naturalist" theme for the month, slides were shown on agriculture, history and artifacts of the Choctaw Indians, burial grounds and the diggings underway at the mounds, at a meeting of Pack 7 of St. Joseph Church.

Cubmaster Andy Timko opened the meeting and presentation of colors and symbols of America was by Den 1.

Awards made during the meeting were by Mrs. Ray Buente who presented the silver arrow point to Tom Buente of Den 2, and Lt. Col. Robert Mungovan, leader of the Webelos, who gave the sportsman award to Richard Curtis and scholar award to David Kettelhut.

Several tours were made by the Cub scouts during the month and Tom Buente reviewed the trip to Shasta Bottling Co. Jon Kettelhut reviewed the Den 1 tour of the city hall and Tom Mungovan spoke on the Webelos trip to a St. Louis science fair.

Dens 1 and 2 also discussed participation in a clean-up campaign with the Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society.

Plans were announced for the group to tour the Granite City Sewage Treatment today.

Den 2 closed the session with the "outdoor code" and all singing "God Bless America."

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Voss, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Pavier, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Buente, Mrs. Wilma DeShon, Mrs. Martha Jarnigan, Mrs. Joyce Hook, Mrs. Helene Kettelhut, and Rich Kienle, Frank Greathouse, Jimmy Moore and Jim Perdue.

Nameoki PTA carnival

Nameoki School PTA will sponsor a Spring Carnival from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. Friday at the school as its annual fund-raising project.

Chairmen, Mrs. Carol Sure, Mrs. Donna Halbert, Mrs. Janet Takmajian and Mrs. Diana Koberna, have announced that the admission fee has been set at 35 cents for both adults and children.

All proceeds will be used for student activities, including field trips.

Featured at the evening event will be various types of sandwiches, desserts, coffee and soft drinks, as well as skill games, a basketball throw, cake walk, white elephant sales, a spook house and movies.

Alpha Eta meet in Grafton

Mrs. Agnes Frynsko of Granite City, president of Alpha Eta Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, presided at the April business meeting of the chapter at Pere Marquette Lodge, Grafton.

Kathleen Kalchoff, professional affairs chairman, presented the recruitment grant to Carol Atkinson, a student at Granite City High School North.

A report of the society state convention was submitted by Wilma Schwarz. The past president's topic, "Emergency Fund," was given by Elsie Sloan of Edwardsville.

Program chairman, Lucille Stevenson, spoke on "Women Educators; professional practitioners-Gift from the Sea."

Hostesses for the meeting were Marlene Barach and Darlene Smith.

Open bids for Venice addition

The Venice Township Board of Auditors will open sealed bids at 7 p.m. Wednesday for a new conference room addition to the township office at 1502 Fifth St.

Proposals are to include general construction, plumbing, heating and electrical work under one bid. The bid opening is a public event.

CARLA HAYNES, first-grade student at Niedringhaus School, who won a television set for top sales in the PTA-sponsored candy sale.

Niedringhaus pupils honored

A 12-inch portable, black and white television set was presented to Carla Haynes, first-grade student at Niedringhaus School, for selling the largest amount of candy in a fund-raising campaign sponsored by the PTA Unit.

Gerald R. Bushue, principal, made the presentation at a school assembly and also awarded a $25 cash award to Chris Vangel, a kindergarten pupil; and $10 cash awards to Mark Jones, second grader; Karen Boaz and Lou Ann Ealy, fifth graders, and Mary Simpson, sixth grade. A special award of $5 went to Leah Stogdill.

Approximately 225 students took part in the project which netted gross sales of $6,740 and profit of $3,000 to the school PTA unit.

General Electric "spirit of 70" radios were presented to Ronnie Barrios, Karen Boaz, Melanie and Rhonda Buckingham, Lou Ann Ealy, Carla Haynes, Donna Horn, Mark Jones, Christina McDaniel, Jim and John McQuaide.

Eric McRaven, John Musick, Keith Norris, Mary and Nancy Simpson, Leah Stogdill, Dallas Stubblefield, Chris Vangel and Eric Wortham.

Loss for '75 first quarter

Post Corporation is expected to report a substantial loss for its first quarter 1975 operations. President V. L. Minahan told shareholders at the publishing, broadcast and insurance firm's annual meeting last week at Appleton, Wis. The corporation owns the Press-Record.

The 1974 losses suffered by All-Star Insurance Corp., Post's property and casualty insurance underwriter headquartered in Milwaukee, have continued into the first quarter.

Minahan said he could not provide figures yet but added that there are some indications that the property and casualty insurance industry in general is "bottoming out" in its loss experience and that a turnaround appears likely in the second and third quarter.

Post reported a loss in 1974 of $6,500 or one cent per share before securities transactions, and $27,238 or 25 cents per share after securities transactions.

The adverse results have been principally caused by a combination of inflation, competition and a securities market drop throughout the property-casualty insurance industry.

Minahan said Post Corp. has worked strenuously to turn All-Star around by cancelling agents who had produced unprofitable business, collecting delinquent accounts, and instituting a far more strict underwriting philosophy designed to return the company to profitability.

Newspaper and broadcasting operations generally are healthy and continue to be steadily profitable, he said.

Shareholders re-elected three directors to serve three-year terms. They include V. L. Minahan, president; Mrs. Mary M. Walter, vice president; and William H. Zuehlke Jr., senior vice president of the Aid Association for Lutherans.

At a subsequent board of directors meeting, all officers were re-elected. They include: Minahan, president; David L. Nelson, executive vice president; treasurer and director; John B. Tortorella, vice president; Mrs. Walter and Elmo W. Reed, vice president-communications engineering.

Charged with hitting away from officer

Darrell Gene Willis, 23, of 2608 Buxton Ave., was charged with resisting arrest and was served with a warrant charging him with reckless driving after a Granite City police officer attempted to arrest him in the 3900 block of State Street at 5:45 p.m. Friday.

An officer said he saw Willis and told him to stay by the squad car while the policeman used the radio to ask if the warrant was still in effect. The officer said when the radio report came back positive, Willis began to walk away, telling the policeman to shoot him in the back if he wanted to.

The officer warned Willis he would charge him with resisting arrest if he did not stop, but Willis continued to walk into the home of a widow of a Granite City policeman, it was alleged.

Police said he walked through the house and left through the back door. Officers arrested him a short time later at August Street and Sheridan Avenue, charged him and served the warrant, according to official report.

LOOT TRAVEL TRAILER

Canned goods, groceries, fishing equipment, blankets, pillows, a stereo, speakers and eight tape recordings, a portable radio and portable light were stolen from the travel trailer of Edward McKinney, 1408 Iowa St., Madison, it was reported at 6:25 a.m. Saturday. A screen was cut and glass in the door was broken to gain entry.

Charged with hitting women

Terry A. Burton, 21, of Fallon, was arrested at 2:30 p.m. Friday and was charged with two counts of battery. His wife, Mrs. Lenetta Burton, 2031 Bryan Ave., and a woman who lives with her, Paula Wells, signed complaints alleging Burton struck them in their home.

Mrs. Burton said her husband struck her and threw her out of her home. The other woman attempted to call police and alleged that Burton threatened her.

When police arrived, Paula Wells called the door and it was alleged Burton grabbed her arm and struck her. Police subdued Burton and arrested him.

Youth in stolen car eludes police

A young man, about 18, who stole a car and was chased by Granite City police, escaped after a police chase at 12:35 a.m. Saturday.

Floyd Clark, 2014 Buxton Ave., reported his car had been stolen from his driveway. Police found the car had been involved in a minor accident in the 2800 block of Buxton Ave.

The auto was stopped minutes after the theft report at Keith and Buxton avenues. Officers said the driver stayed in the car while police approached, but then sped away.

They returned to the police car and attempted to chase, but the youth escaped.

Police reported finding the car minutes later, abandoned in the 2900 block of Marshall Avenue.

Assembly procedures unfair to public

To the Editor:
On April 17, the Illinois House released its work schedule for next week and the week following. The schedule shows that the House membership will meet in committee approximately 10 hours a day. They will also be holding regular floor sessions. The work schedule as outlined means that legislators will be in committee approximately 20 minutes in the two weeks—10 hours times 10 days equals 100 times 20 minutes—to consider legislation.

To keep to their schedule, the House will be considering approximately 2,000 pieces of legislation. In other words, 4,000 minutes will be devoted to 2,000 proposed laws.

For those unfamiliar with the committee process, a brief explanation might help. Testimony both pro and con is presented on bills. Many bills are amended in committee and, in some instances, the amendments completely change the original intent of the bill.

Committee hearings take up only a small percentage of a legislator's day. Each day that a legislator is in Springfield he must also attend floor sessions, party conferences, subcommittee liaison with state agencies, the governor's office and also the media and press, commission hearings, meetings with constituents, must be answered and phone calls, see lobbyists and, in some instances, keep in contact with his home area. He has an office or maintains a job.

If he is a family man, he's also trying to be a good father and his loved ones at home. Sponsors of bills must attend the committee hearings while in committee approximately 20 minutes in the two weeks—10 hours times 10 days equals 100 times 20 minutes—to consider legislation.

With all the mounting problems facing this state and nation, because of the increasing complexities of our economy and technology, it seems that the existing procedure is patently unfair to the people of this great state and to our legislators.

Observers of legislators in Springfield. You will find them constantly on the run—grabbing a "bite" whenever possible. The backstabbing, price creates health hazards and stress. We question the effectiveness of such a process.

In comparison, a sister industrial state to Illinois (Ohio) is considering less than 1,000 bills during the same period. And everyone in that state is complaining about the load.

How can the people of this state really be helped when there is really no time, under the present system, to adequately consider legislation?

recuperate—if leadership is indeed making that attempt. MRS. NORMA J. SMITH, Granite City

REPORTS VIBRATION IN EAST 20TH AREA
To the Editor:
There are laws that protect people's property from vandals. I call upon our leaders to ride out on their horses of leadership and inform the people that "the bureaucrats are here."

I live "behind the mill" along East 20th Street. We are getting a lot of vibration which at times is so bad it wakes us up at night and shakes the whole house.

Since the time of this year, VA benefits counselors have been visiting the "elder statesmen," whose average age is 95.

The oldest, Norton Nelson of Whitestown, Ind., was 105 in January. His "kid brother," Everett Nelson of Palestine, Ill., also a Spanish-American War veteran, is 95.

At one stop, the counselors found their 90-year-old subject claiming legs for use at constructing two new cabins for his hunting camp. The veteran suggested that he was in better physical shape than his two visitors and he received no argument.

The arrival of the "government officials" prompted a 95-year-old to express his displeasure with the spiraling economy. When the counselors attempted to explain the increase in his VA pension, the veteran shook them off, saying he had no money to pay for his present income.

A 96-year-old veteran living with his wife of 59 years resided in the VA hospital. He said his situation warranted an increase in his monthly stipend, he turned to his wife and said, "I'll take you dance tonight."

The veterans' careers following their military service at the turn of the century have been a long and hard one with the military. Many were accordance with a union agreement a committee, consisting of two elected administrators and two union representatives, will meet to make a hiring recommendation to the VA.

Vickers and K. Duane Rankin, Venice-Lincoln administrator, will represent the VA. They will be followed if all three bidders are equally qualified, Vickers explained.

Yvonne Berry, director of the Lincoln Technical Center, was filling a vacancy, and Phillip Daniels as a substitute driver.

Conflict of interest bill by Rep. Steele

A proposed conflict of interest law for members of the state legislature has been introduced by State Rep. Everett C. Steele of Glen Carbon and Rep. Harold Byers of Highland.

Bill 2044 would place restrictions on the voting of legislators in matters in which they have a personal or economic interest, or in instances in which they could derive an economic gain or benefit from the passage or defeat of legislation.

Steele and Byers said many legislators have extensive outside business and professional interests. Where the interest of a legislator in a legislative matter clashes with his interest in private affairs, a conflict arises, they assert. Bill 2044 is intended to clarify such situations and to provide safeguards to protect the public interest.

"The basis for effective government," the two legislators concluded, "is public confidence. Nothing is more essential at present than to improve the standards of ethical behavior by those who conduct the public business."

Steele, a Republican, and Byers, a Democrat, said they introduced the legislation to seek bi-partisan support in "improving the ethical standards and procedures of those who legislate and conduct the public business."

Price says U.S. spirit same now as in 1775

On the 200th anniversary of the birth of Paul Revere and the Battle of Lexington and Concord and other Revolutionary War events, Cong. Melvin Price discussed the spirit of America then and now.

"In the past two centuries, our nation has changed in many ways," the local congressman noted. "Our country has grown economically, politically and technologically."

"Yet, despite these changes, the basic spirit of the American people continues much as it has for the past 200 years."

"It is this spirit of community cooperation which has kept our nation great for two centuries—the spirit which made America to continue to grow."

House ok's strikes by public employees

The Illinois House voted 116-29 last week for a bill granting most public employees the right to strike. Senate action is pending.

Exceptions would be police, firemen, prison guards and school personnel; disputes involving them would be made subject to binding arbitration. Compensating proposals would be submitted 30 days before contract expiration, with a Public Employees Labor Relations Panel choosing one of the two.

All other public employees would be banned from striking 30 days after they are notified of the law. Those who sought arbitration from the panel.

Mrs. Loretta Skinner new Pontoon treasurer

The new Pontoon Beach Village Board, meeting for the first time since the new trustees were sworn in, voted to retain all the officers, with the exception of the treasurer, who had been elected as a trustee.

New trustee Duane Skinner was the former village treasurer. The board voted to re-elect John W. Winkler, Loretta Skinner, the new treasurer, and Ronald C. Winkler.

Officers retained were Jerry Henderson as zoning administrator, Glen Winkler as health inspector, Ronald C. Winkler as village attorney, and Horace Calvo and Paul Guzzardo as village assessors.

Mayor Raymond Gaudette was retained as president pro tem, to serve when Village Board President Floyd Davis Moss is absent.

The board concurred in Moss' appointments to committees. A special meeting was held at 7:30 p.m. today to effect fund transfers in the present budget. Moss reported that work is being begun on the new village budget.

Mayor Sasyk announced that he would confer with the city's Finance Committee last week and will review the final contract draft with "Update," a company from Greenville, for the development of the Madison business area. He said the cost will be about $15,000 and will come from revenue sharing funds.

The council approved a resolution from the Sacred Heart Polish National Catholic Church to hold its annual three day picnic July 25, 26 and 27.

Older citizens latest group to oppose discrimination

American Association of Retired Persons—While America has made great strides in recent years toward eliminating discrimination based on race, religion and sex, it has too often overlooked countless instances of discrimination against the one group that all of us may someday belong to—the elderly.

Practices and attitudes that would bring howls of protest were they to be directed toward minority groups or women are being accepted by society as "fair treatment" of the nation's nearly 22 million older citizens.

Imagine the outcry if a person was arbitrarily fired simply because he or she was black, or if a woman was refused a job because "her place is in the home." Yet, millions of Americans are treated this way—and are expected to accept such treatment—merely because of their chronological age.

In a recent in-depth survey, public opinion pollster Louis Harris found that 37 per cent of the retirees he interviewed did not stop working by choice, but were forced to retire. Among blacks aged 65 and older, 50 per cent said they were forced to leave their jobs. And 49 per cent of those in the under-$3,000 a year income group said the same.

Harris also found that among those executives with direct hiring and firing responsibility, "an impressive 79 per cent admitted to discrimination in retirement practices through the polite but brutal process of mandatory retirement."

Such practices, Harris claimed, are merely symptoms of the unfavorable, unfair and untrue image of older persons as perceived by society.

"The portrait of mature citizens drawn by those who have not yet reached maturity is that of unaltered, physically inert, narrow-minded, sexually finished, ineffective old people rotting away in poor health, without proper medical care and without enough money to live on," he said. The pollster noted that his interviews with thousands of older citizens show this perception of older persons to be "a flat and unmitigated libel and a downright lie."

There are, however, encouraging signs that the nation's older citizens are no longer willing to submit to discriminatory practices or to tolerate their negative stereotype.

Through organizations like the American Association of Retired Persons, with a membership of almost eight million, older Americans are increasingly demonstrating their vigor, independence, potential and political power.

In Congress, state legislatures and the courts, older persons are asserting their right to fair and equal treatment under the law.

Such efforts are long overdue. "Ageism" is no less an evil in a democratic society than "racism" or "sexism" and should be fought just as forcefully.

As part of the observance of Older Americans Month, in May, thousands of older citizens throughout the nation are drafting a "Declaration of Rights and Obligations" to be distributed during the U. S. bicentennial celebration. Nothing seems more fitting for the bicentennial than a reassertion of the rights of those millions of older citizens who have given so much to America.

Newspaper awards prompt renewed pledge to try harder

Our front page April 24 illustrates the kind of thorough coverage for which the Press-Record has long been noted. There were on-the-scene staff photographs of the Venice fire department rescue squad saving the life of a street employee, Pontoon Beach firemen battling an after-dark blaze, Madison firefighters limiting the fast spread of a shed fire that damaged two homes, and Granite City firemen fighting a four-home explosion and fire that potentially could have jeopardized youngsters' safety.

Front pages, of course, vary widely—depending on the particular news events that occur. The entire newspaper—news and advertising—is constantly fresh and different because the community and the times in which we live are ever-changing.

Nevertheless, a certain continuity of performance emerges, and we were proud to see recognition—at the 1975 meeting of the Southern Illinois Editorial Association—of the around-the-clock daily effort that goes into the Press-Record's twice-weekly issues.

We have never made much of a point of entering contests because one of the best judges of a newspaper is the reading public itself. On that score, however, the degree of acceptance accorded by the community that is served—the Press-Record has consistently outpaced not only most papers in this region but most in the nation.

That was the reason why our entries for the locally-written regular basis, and they were most kind to us this year. A revised report from the organization designates the Press-Record as No. 1 in advertising excellence, No. 1 and an honorable mention in locally-written editorials, No. 3 on general excellence, and No. 3 in the judging of best newspaper photography. There were honorable mention awards on best overall makeup and best local news coverage.

We appreciate the awards, and are dedicating ourselves to trying even harder during this and future years to serve "our bosses," the readers.

Each oldtimer was photographed and interviewed, and then the rapid dividing of their ranks was recorded as it occurred. Soon, all survivors were well above 100 years old. Then there was only one still alive, and then none.

Life Magazine is gone now, and someday there will be no more Spanish-American War veterans. One who comes to mind is the late Walter F. Colledge, longtime local educator for whom Coolidge Junior High is named.

A current tally by the Veterans Administration shows 38 Spanish-American War veterans still living in Illinois, 38 in Indiana, 29 in Kentucky and 29 in Tennessee, plus varying numbers in other states.

VA efforts to insure that the nation's oldest veterans are receiving maximum benefits have revealed that the Spanish-American War veterans differ little from the today's other 20 million former servicemen.

The salaries of both men will be reimbursed under the Concentrated Employment Training Act (CETA).

Three teachers' aides also were employed through the CETA manpower program. Yvonne Berry, director of the Lincoln Technical Center, was filling a vacancy, and Phillip Daniels as a substitute driver.

New board members challenging expenditures by Venice schools

A trend for future meetings may have been established last week when the monthly meeting was called for approval, usually a routine procedure at Venice School Board meetings.

Members of the board, including firm names, purchases and costs without itemization prior to a meeting, with Sup. Vickers then answering questions concerning specific bills or asking that a questionable bill be deferred from payment pending verification.

The administrator has the original bills available at the meeting, in most instances, or is familiar with each amount to give a satisfactory explanation. Several items were questioned in detail by last week's board members last week, included in their queries were a $2,000 fee for Lincoln Lodge Hotel (meals and lodging at the Illinois State Basketball tournament) and a $6,000 bill from Landers Agency (annual premium of buildings and contents).

Board members were probed in depth by the newcomers concerning a $9,967 bill from Venice Gas & Oil Co. "I don't want to see these fuel oil delivered over a three-month period," Burger asked how delivered quantities are recorded, stressing that state regulations require a stamped ticket or metered receipt.

The new board members are Charles Burger and John Boushara.

Jack Tolliver is the board president. Burger later voted "no" to approve the bill, stating, "I want to go through the whole works." Boushara was assured by Tolliver and Vickers that all bills are available to be reviewed by the board members prior to a meeting.

"If the finance committee (Leatherman, Boushara and Burger) wishes to take the bills to come to the board office and examine all the bills before a meeting I think it would be a fine idea," Tolliver said.
